

ACHIEVEMENTS

July 2013 to December 2018

FORAC

FOREST TO CUSTOMER

126 ongoing or completed research activities

50 student projects (3 MBA, 23 M.Sc., 19 Ph.D., 5 postdoc)

37 internships

39 other projects (by professionals or students)

282 scientific contributions

63 scientific journal articles (submitted or published)

71 conferences with refereed proceedings

86 oral communications (without proceedings)

62 other publications

5 Expo-Conference (average of 80 participants)

5 Summer School (average of 55 participants)

2 workshops on Forest Entrepreneurship (2017,2018)
Invitation only event with 100 participants

4 international competitions of the wood supply game,
8 countries involved (servers installed on 3 continents).
More than 1500 games played annually

LogiLab/LogiOpt in use by an industrial partner
(in collaboration with FPInnovations)

FORAC drying tool implemented in 50+ dryers in Quebec and Ontario

RESEARCH

RECOGNITION

Finalist with Resolute, OCTAS innovation award, 2018

Maha Ben Ali, best student article, David Martell prize, 2018. Gregory Paradis, 2014 and 2017.

Tasseda Boukherroub, 2016

Philippe Marier, 1st prize Award for Excellence in Research Professionals, FRQNT, 2017

Mikael Rönnqvist, Daniel H. Wagner Prize for Excellence in Operations Research Practice, 2016

Nadia Lehoux, Société royale du Canada, 2016

Azadeh Mobtaker and Louis-Alexandre Lapointe, young researcher contest MOSIM, 2016

Thierry Moisan, student prize, Gala des OCTAS, 2015

Luc LeBel, Forest Engineer of the Year, 2013

TRANSFER

TEAM

13 active students
(master, doctoral, postdoctoral)

37 diplomas awarded (MBA, M.Sc., Ph.D., postdoc)

4 research professionals

8 industrial partners

28 professors working in 4 research fields
(forest operations, industrial engineering, business administration, computer science)

Several international collaborations and invited researchers
(Austria, Chili, France, United States, Norway, Sweden, Portugal)

